

General Contribution

A general contribution to Larimer Humane Society will benefit our animal programs including adoptions, foster care, medical treatment costs, and humane education. Donations to Larimer Humane Society create life-saving options for the animals in our care. Your contribution directly impacts the number of animals we can successfully care for every year.