

Exotic and Farm Animals

Larimer Humane Society receives hundreds of exotic pets and farm animals every year.

Reptiles

Reptiles can be difficult pets to care for. Choosing the right one for you can require lots of research. The links below provide information on reptile husbandry. If you are considering adopting a reptile, please call the WildKind department for information on what reptiles are currently available for adoption.

Iguanas

www.greenigsociety.org

www.anapsid.org

Snakes

www.anapsid.org

www.wnyherp.org

Turtles

www.anapsid.org

www.boxturtlesite.info

www.turtlecare.net

Lizards

www.anapsid.org

Birds

Exotic birds are often available for adoption. Please call the WildKind department for what is currently available. Below are some links that provide care and behavior information.

Budgies/Parakeets

www.lisashea.com

www.letstalkbirds.com

Cockatiels

www.cockatiels.org

www.cockatiel.com

Conures

www.parrotpages.com

www.avianweb.com

Parrots

www.fluffies.org

featheredfamily.com

www.thegabrielfoundation.org www.cari-bird.org

www.parrotscience.com

www.naturalencounters.com

Farm Animals

Larimer Humane Society often has small farm animals available for adoption. Please call the WildKind department for information on available animals. Farm animals are adopted to humane homes only. The link below provides care information for pet farm animals.

www.farmanimalshelters.org