

Leroy

We adopted Leroy from you about a year ago. He has been such a wonderful pet as well as a companion to our other dog Riley. He wasn't anything close to what we were looking for but he was just what our family needed. He is one of the happiest and most loving souls you will ever meet. He has brought so much joy to our family. Thank you for everything.

With love and thanks,

The Rhodes Family