

Open Door Policy

Larimer Humane Society is an open-door shelter. We offer compassionate care to every animal in need, no animal is turned away. In Fiscal Year 2009, we sheltered 9,245 companion animals and 2,628 wildlife animals. Animal Protection and Control answered 24,412 calls for service (including investigations and welfare, stray pick up, wild animal pick up, public safety service and deceased animal pick up). In 2009 Larimer Humane Society adopted 3,483 animals into loving homes and reunited over 2,538 animals to their owners.
